

NSCE RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Selection Surveys and Statistical Analysis Carried Out by NSCE

Project Title	Research Methodology	Methodology - Data Analysis	Objective	Sample Size	Location	Date	Client
Building Rural Assets with Valuable Opportunities - BRAVO	Literature review/ Qualitative research (FGDs, in-depth interviews)	-Qualitative Analysis, SWOT analysis, In depth interviews- Focus groups	The project specific objective is: Promoting Fayoum as an eco-tourism destination through the creation of a comprehensive system where natural, archeological, cultural heritage are integrated and harmonized and typical productive activities are enhanced.	Phase 1: 4 indepth interviews -3 Focus Group- 3 Direct Observation Check Lis - Phase 2: 8 indepth interviews -4 Focus Group- 2 Direct Observation Check Lis	Phase 1: Tunis, Nazla and, Ghandeer - Phase 2: Tunis, Nazla,Quta, Qarun and Medinet Madi	Phase 1: October 2013 - December 2013 Phase 2: March 2015 - December 2015	MAIS (Movimento per l'Autosviluppo, l'Interscambio e la Solidarieta')
: Implementation of the Activities of the "Support to Farmers Organisations in Africa Programme – North Africa" (SFOAP) in Egypt	Literature review, Structured Questionnaire, In depth interviews	Qualitative analysis	The objective of phase 1 of SFOAP is to identify the scope of work; organization partners, supply chain or pilot areas and the needs for more productive and competitive agricultural activities in the identified scope in Egypt.	33 interviews	Fayoum, Sohag	April-14	FERT association / IFAD
Evaluation of the Integrated Water Ressources Management (IWRM) Policy and Revision	Literature review/ Qualitative research (FGDs, in-depth interviews)	Qualitative analysis	This research engaged with two objectives: (1) It studies the concept of IWRM and its principles/practices within the AfDB and surrounding arena. It asks: how did it develop, what effects did it produce on the ground so far, what are limiting and enabling factors for its success; (2) It explores insights, new applications and solutions through various research methods, by asking the questions how the Bank can better operationalize the policy and make it more relevant to its actions.  The proposed framework should guide the critical study of various interpretations and challenges of IWRM policy and practice at multiple political and geographical scales, from macro political settings to localize river basins and communities at micro level.	Macro level interviews in 5 countries	Africa: Western Africa (Niger), East Africa, North Africa, Central Africa, Southern Africa, Indian Ocean Islands, Gulf Guinea	April - August 2014	African Development Bank
Survey on primary roads and rural roads- Millenium challenge Account-Burkina Faso	Quantitative Survey (Structured Questionnaire)	Quantitative analysis	Project Objectives:The specific objective of the survey is to provide the necessary elements to develop an impact study that will assess whether the project has succeeded in: • Improving access to agricultural markets, especially during the rainy season by the upgrading of sections of main roads and rural roads • Improving access to basic social and economic infrastructure • Increasing the volume and value of goods transported • Reducing the travel time to market and reducing vehicle operating costs • Ensuring the sustainability of the road network by ensuring the maintenance of roads.	3000 questionnaires	Burkina Faso: Province de la Comoé, de la Léraba, du KénéDougou, Sabou – Koudougou – Didyr, Banfora – Sindou, Dédougou – Nouna – Djibasso- - Mali Border	August 2011 - November 2014	MILLENNIUM CHALLENGE ACCOUNT-BURKINA FASO (MCA Burkina)
Mid-term Evaluation for the Integrated Management of the Mid Atlas Forests	Literature Review, Qualitative in-depth interviews	Qualitative analysis	The mid-term evaluation is aimed at helping to better understand the status and performance of the project in achieving its objectives and planned results. It must allow key stakeholders namely HCEFLCD the PMU, UNDP, GEF, WWF to make necessary decisions to improve the performance of the program as necessary.The assessment is therefore of particular importance as it will bring into light a new specific agreement on the expansion of the project activities in the remaining 30 municipalities in the corridor upon it completion.	22 questionnaires, 13 individual interviews and 24 focus group discussions.	Two rural municipalities( Tanourdi Skoura	April-June 2013	UNDP/FEM
Final Evaluation of the MCC-Maroc-Compact "Financial Services" LOT4	literature review/ Qualitative research (FGDs, in-depth interviews)	Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis	The aim of evaluation is to assess the performance of the project based on the dimensions related to the relevance, effectiveness, efficiency, coherence and sustainability. The main purpose is to measure the impacts of the results in terms of its expected outcomes and analyse the degree of the mid term review recommendations to see if they affected the performance of the project objetives and therefore develop a cluster of skills and knowledge that will help improve future programs to strengthen the sector in Morocco and in the region.	585 questionnaires, 14 individual interviews and 30 focus group discussion	The geopgraphical scope of the evaluation was led all over the Moroccan territory	8 April 2013- 8September 2013	The Millennium Challenge Account-MCA, Morocco
Knowledge, Attitude & Practice (KAP) - Water, Sanitation & Hygiene (WASH) Study	Literature review/ Qualitative research (FGDs, In-depth Interviews, Observations)/ Quantitative research	Data entry and analysis of the quantitative survey through data analysis tool (SPSS); the tabulation of the data collected in the focus group discussions, in-depth interviews, observations	The over all objective is to determine the existing knowledge, attitudes and practices relating to water, sanitation and hygiene of women, children (age) and men in WASH programme communities in North Sudan.	2700 questionnaires, 72 FGDs, 54 in-depth interviews, 18 observations	18 states of North Sudan	October 2014 - February 2015	UNICEF
ISSIP Baseline Survey	Literature review/ Qualitative research (FGDs)/ Quantitative research/ Mapping Exercise	Data entry and analysis of the quantitative survey through data analysis tool (SPSS); the tabulation of the data collected in the focus group discussions	The aim of the baseline survey is to collect data on the communities' present satisfaction levels of sanitation services and to provide information which can be used to monitor the project in the course of implementation.	402 questionnaires, 11 FGDs, mapping of 23 villages	Beheira, Gharbeya and Kafr Elsheikh	July - October 2014	Holding Company for Water and Wastewater

Project Title	Research Methodology	Methodology - Data Analysis	Objective	Sample Size	Location	Date	Client
Bilingual Education Program (BEP) Pilot Projects in Niger and Chad	Literature review/ Qualitative research (FGDs, in-depth interviews)/ Case study	Qualitative analysis	The objectives of this project is to assess the performance of Bilingual Education program in terms of its relevance, efficiency, effectiveness and sustainability and to also to help generating knowledge and identify options to improve the on-going projects and design future interventions under the BEP.	40 Focus group discussions in 16 urban and rural schools, primary and secondary; key informant interviews; 2 case studies	Niger and Chad	March - October 2014	Islamic Development Bank (IDB)
HAYAT Baseline Survey	Literature review/ Quantitative research/ Mapping Exercise	Data entry and analysis of the quantitative survey through data analysis tool (SPSS); the tabulation of the data collected in the focus group discussions, in-depth interviews	The overall objective of the Baseline survey is to provide the project with solid, valid, detailed and comprehensive baseline data to enable a mid-term and a long term evaluation based on a "before and after comparison" as well as provide an overview on the targeted population versus other non- target groups. The baseline study will generate key project benchmarks to compare project results with at the end of the project through the quantitative survey and mapping exercise	2504 questionnaires, mapping of 29 villages	Minya Governorate (Edwa and Maghagha districts)	May - September 2014	UNIDO
SMART Project End line Study	Literature review/ Qualitative research (FGDs, in-depth interviews)/ Quantitative research	Data entry and analysis of the quantitative survey through data analysis tool (SPSS); the tabulation of the data collected in the individual interviews.	To evaluate the SMART program's effect on women's knowledge and practices related to maternal anemia prevention, care seeking during pregnancy and newborn care before and after SMART program implementation;	9800 questionnaires, semi-structured key informant interviews with about 88 fathers, mothers, grandmothers	Sharkia, Qaliubya, Benisuef, Assiut, Qena and Sohag	2013-2014	Save the Children / USAID
Fish Retailer Baseline Survey	Literature review/ Qualitative research (FGDs, in-depth interviews)/ Quantitative research	Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis	The aim of the baseline survey is to provide quantitative and qualitative information on the current situation (before the startup of the project) of the project target group" Fish retailers" that results can be used and compared with following assessment/evaluation in order to track the performance and impact of the project. Hence, it will document existing economic and social conditions among male and female fish retailers in the five project governorates.	900 questionnaires, 5 focus group discussions, 20 in-depth interviews, 10 case studies	Fayoum, Minya, Sharkia, Beheira, Kafr El Sheikh	1 June 2013 - 1 November 2013	Worldfish
Evaluation Design of the 2nd phase of the Italian Egyptian debt-for-development Swap Program	Qualitative research (FGDs, in-depth interviews)	Qualitative analysis	The aim of the evaluation is to measure the swap programme relevance (to resolve the debt problems and promote poverty reduction orientation of public spending) and targets, results and criticisms, sustainability and efficiency, effectiveness and impact, coherence and complementarity of national strategies and development cooperation priorities. The main focus is on its policy design and institutional innovation as a mechanism oriented to strengthen and enhance the Egyptian institutional capacity and effectiveness to design, manage and implement poverty-oriented initiatives on the basis of a strong partnership.	7 focus group discussions, 10 in-depth interviews	Cairo, Fayoum, Alexandria	15 May 2013 - 15 June 2013	Development Researchers' Network - DRN
IDB-Microfinance Development Program (IDB-MDP) Study for Tajikistan	Literature review/ Qualitative research (FGDs, in-depth interviews)	Qualitative analysis	To assess the existing microfinance sector in Tajikistan and accordingly suggest a suitable intervention model for IDB in line with the objectives of the MDP. The intervention model should include establishing/ strengthening a microfinance institution and development of the related enabling environment, as needed in order to promote and develop Islamic micro finance.	5 FGDs,15-20 indepth interviews	Tajikistan	June -October 2013	IDB
IDB-Microfinance Development Program (IDB-MDP) Study for Egypt	Literature review/ Qualitative research (FGDs, in-depth interviews)	Qualitative analysis	To assess the existing microfinance sector in Egypt and accordingly suggest a suitable intervention model for IDB in line with the objectives of the MDP. The intervention model should include establishing/ strengthening a microfinance institution and development of the related enabling environment, as needed in order to promote and develop Islamic micro finance.	5 FGDs,15-20 indepth interviews	Egypt	June -October 2013	IDB
Mobilization of the Dahshour World Heritage Site for Community Development Quick Socio Economic Assessment	literature review/ Qualitative research (FGDs, in-depth interviews)	Qualitative analysis	conducting a quick Socio-Economic assessment for the activities and interventions that are related to community and implemented within the framework of Dahshour Joint programme	15 focus group discussions,25 in-depth interviews	Dahshur	23 January 2013 - 10 February 2013	ILO
Effective School to Work Transition through Career Guidance for Youth Employment in Egypt Final Evaluation	literature review/ Qualitative research (FGDs, in-depth interviews)	Qualitative analysis	The purpose of the evaluation is to Measure the extent to which planned and unintended results have been attained during the implementation of the project and Establish and share with all partners the critical lessons learned that will contribute to improving the design and performance of similar future programs.	22 in-depth interviews, 9 focus group discussions	Giza, fayoum, Luxor, Aswan, Alexandria	August - December 2012	ILO
EVALUATION OF THE QUALITY OF MERO PROPOSALS AND COMPETITIVE CALLS	Literature review/ Qualitative research in-depth interviews)	Qualitative analysis	The purpose of the review is to increase the number of proposal from the MENA region that meet IDRC standards and criteria and to identify the problem areas that have caused the underrepresentation of the MENA region in IDRC's global portfolio and to propose recommendations on how to address this decline	60 in-depth interviews	Egypt, Sudan, Jordan	July -December 2012	IDRC
Meshwary Project Evaluation	Literature review/ Qualitative research (FGDs, in-depth interviews)	Qualitative analysis	The purpose of the evaluation is to Measure the extent to which planned and unintended results have been attained during the implementation of the Meshwary project in the ten governorates, assess changes in the capacities and skills of adolescents and youth, assess the contribution of the training activities to the project's objectives and establish and share with all partners the critical lessons learned that will contribute to improving the design and performance of similar future programs.	28 focus group discussions, 26 in-depth interviews	Qena, Assiut, Sharkia, Alexandria	July- November 2012	UNICEF Egypt

Project Title	Research Methodology	Methodology - Data Analysis	Objective	Sample Size	Location	Date	Client
Employment Promotion Programme (Green Cairo ... Green Jobs)	Literature review/ Qualitative research in-depth interviews)	Qualitative analysis	The Overall Objective of the assignment is to assess Labor Market (LM) needs in the industrial sector in Greater Cairo and to identify current and future needed activities to cope with the changes in the labor market in Egypt in the sub-sectors of energy efficient building, energy efficient transportation, waste management and recycling as well as energy conservation.	52 in-depth interviews	Greater Cairo	November 2011 - February 2012	GIZ
IWRM Quality at Entry and Country Strategic Programme Review	Project data/literature review	Quantitative and qualitative analysis	The selected number of projects from different countries in which AfDB has been active in water management projects are assessed according to a developed scoring system that takes into account different indicators/parameters of assessment: institutional, technical, economical, social, environmental and best practices. For each indicator a number of questions are raised and answered/scored on a scale from 1-5 to guarantee comparable and quantifiable results. The assessment is based on official AfDB documents available for each project, i.e. Final Appraisal Reports, Completion Reports, Mid-Term Reviews etc.	40 projects from 10 countries	Projects located in 10 countries: Morocco, Senegal, DR Congo, Nigeria, Mozambique, Uganda, Zambia, Tanzania, Kenya, Cameroon	January-April 2012	African Development Bank
SURVEY ON FINANCING THE AGRICULTURE-SECTOR IN EGYPT: ANALYSIS OF THE SUPPLY AND DEMAND OF CREDIT	Qualitative Research (FGDs, Semi structured interviews)	Qualitative analysis	The survey's goal is to contribute to the definition of a project that will be co-financed by AFD and the European Union and aim at supporting the improvement of the financing offer towards the agriculture sector, in addition to providing operational recommendations to contribute to improving this financing offer. The survey will provide a qualitative analysis of financing needs, financing supply and perspectives, as well as of the structures providing support and advice to the agriculture sector, insofar as they can contribute to improve financing.		Cairo, Kafr Al Shiekh, Fayoum	December 2011 - March 2012	HORUS-Development Finance Donor: French Development Agency (Agence Française De Développement AFD)
Evaluation of UNICEF Sudan Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene (WASH) Programme	Secondary data review, quantitative structured questionnaires, focus groups discussions, in-depth interview	Quantitative and qualitative analysis	The overall goal of this evaluation is to examine to what extent the objectives and results of the WASH Programme have been achieved over the last eight years, with a special focus on the past year (2009-2010) where possible and relevant, with the aim of drawing out lessons learned and identifying success stories and possible and relevant, with the aim of drawing out lessons learned and identifying success stories and human-rights based approach.	1070 questionnaire - 50 interviews - 15 Focus Group	Sudan: North Darfur, South Darfur, Kassala, South Kordofan, Blue Nile	April 2011 - November 2011	UNICEF Sudan
Youth Labor Market Survey, Sudan	Secondary data review, qualitative survey with semi-structured questionnaires, focus groups discussions, in-depth interview, SWOT Analysis	Qualitative Analysis	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Provide an overview of the general labour market based on the implicit knowledge of the key local and national actors' in the target state with regards to employment and self-employment</li> <li>2. Assess the labour market's needs and suggest a possible revision of existing youth training curricula including the introduction of new training and technical assistance models.</li> <li>3. Provide detailed information and analysis of the following main indicators of the youth labour market: population/demographic trends; education trends; labor force (youth participation; youth employment and unemployment trends, employment by contract type, informal unemployment, etc.); inactivity; and wages and working conditions.</li> <li>4. Identify the main problems related to youth employment, taking into consideration: the economic and institutional environment for job creation; nature of jobs available for youth; real and perceived employer constraints to hiring youth; current gaps in the local market in order to determine demands for certain professions for which youth can be trained; labour market gender-based discrimination and inequality.</li> <li>5. Explain the strategies to be adopted in order to enhance youth access to employment and reduce youth poverty. Determine the areas of training interest</li> </ol>	14 focus group discussions, 18 in depth interviews, 104 participants in 3 SWOT/profiling workshops	Sudan: North Kordofan, South Kordofan, Blue Nile State	April 2010 - Sept 2010	UNDP Sudan
Provision of Indicators Tracking and Portfolio Assessment, Sudan	Secondary data review, qualitative and quantitative survey, structured questionnaires, focus groups discussions, in-depth interview	Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>☑ To provide baseline values and monitor a set of key indicators in order to inform UNDP programming and stakeholders about the status of development results and factors influencing them</li> <li>☑ To monitor and track over a multi-year period the progress towards the achievement of CPAPbased development results, at the outcome and, where appropriate, the output level</li> <li>☑ To provide evidence-based data as a basis for management decisions in relation to fine-tuning program development and strategy</li> <li>☑ To create an information base related to program results, which can be utilized to inform substantial final evaluation exercises and subsequent programming</li> <li>☑ To provide information to national counterparts, UN agencies and other national stakeholders as well as create an evidence-based platform which can promote policy dialogue and debate UNDP's support to Sudan's national development goals</li> <li>☑ To capture lessons learned and analyze issues through monitoring trends in program development.</li> </ul>	900 structured questionnaires, 180 focus group discussions and in-depth interviews - repeated once a year for three years	Sudan: West Darfur, North Darfur, South Darfur, Kassala, Red Sea, Ghadaref, South Kordofan (including Abyei), Blue Nile, Khartoum	July 2010 - December 2012	UNDP Sudan

Project Title	Research Methodology	Methodology - Data Analysis	Objective	Sample Size	Location	Date	Client
Family bank evaluation, Sudan	Secondary data review, qualitative and quantitative survey, structured questionnaires, focus groups discussions , in-depth interview	Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis	1)Measure the progress of the Family Bank in meeting the overall objectives of SMDF as a sustainable microfinance institution; 2) Measure the extent to which the work of the Family Bank has so far positively impacted the socioeconomic conditions of the target group thereby contributing to overall poverty reduction in Sudan.	280 structured questionnaires , 10 focus group discussions, 30 in depth interviews	Khartoum , Sudan	May 10- July 10	SMDF, Sudan
External Evaluation of the Child Friendly School (CFS) initiative implemented in schools supported by UNRWA and GAPAR over the last three years with funds from UNICEF, Syria	Literature review; Qualitative survey; In-depth Interviews; Focus Group Discussions; Site observations	Qualitative analysis, PRA analysis	To evaluate the effectiveness of the Child Friendly Schools program implemented by UNICEF in UNRWA and GAPAR schools in Syria	620 survey responses; 60 focus group discussions; 59 individual in depth interviews;	Damascus, Syria	Dec 09 - Mar 10	UNICEF Syria
Macro-Economic Impact of the HIV/AIDS Epidemic in Sudan	Desk research, literature review, focus group discussions	Qualitative and Quantitative (econometric) Analysis	In its continuing efforts to combat the spread of HIV/AIDS in Sudan the UNDP requested a macro-economic impact study that: 1. Provides evidence of the significance of the impact of HIV/AIDS to the economy 2. Can be used as an advocacy tool to enhance political and financial support 3. Is useful in mainstreaming HIV/AIDS in national development plans, poverty reduction strategies and budgetary 4. Can contribute to building institutional capacity to plan and implement multi-sectorial strategies at both national and sub-national levels to limit the spread of HIV/AIDS and mitigate its social and economic impact on poor people and women	58 participants in focus Group Discussion	Sudan (Khartoum, Red Sea, Kassala)	October 2009 - March 2010	UNDP Sudan
Feasibility Study of IDB Microfinance Development Program (IDB-MDP) for Senegal	Literature Review, Quantitative structured Questionnaire, and Focus Groups Discussion	Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis	The main objective of the study is to ensure a sound foundation for IDB's Microfinance Development Program in Senegal through a comprehensive feasibility study. The main output of the study will be a comprehensive report, summarizing the following fields of the feasibility study: 1. Identification of Major Islamic and Conventional Microfinance Models 2. Assessment and determination of Legal Framework 3. Market survey and Profile of Microfinance institutions 4. IDB Forward Looking Strategy 5. Five-years business plan	400 questionnaires and 12 Focus Group Discussion	Senegal	January 2009- January 2010	IDB
Establishing Famer Marketing Associations, Handicrafts Marketing Associations and SFD Staff Training Needs Assesment	Literature Review, Qualitative in-depth interviews	Qualitative analysis	The objectives of the proposed consultancy are to: (1) Identify existing number and locations of the project related CDAs, FMAs, HMAs and NGOs (2) Upgrade the capacity of existing community development associations (CDAs) (3) Initiate outreach activities for the formation of new groups to establish farmer marketing associations (FMAs) and handicrafts marketing associations (HMAs) (4) Upgrade the institutional capacities of the SFD's staff both on the central and regional levels on identifying and assessing CADs performance and identifying their training and institutional capacity upgrade needs.	50 interviews in 12 districts in assuit and Qena	Assuit and Qena governorates	May - November 2009	IFAD, MoLAR
Women at Work- Egypt	Literature Review, Quantitative Questionnaire and Focus Groups Discussion	Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis	To asses the opportunities and obstacles that face women employment in both the tourism and the Information, Communication and Technology (ICT) sectors	200 Structured questionnaires with tourism and ICT companies- 11 Focus Groups Discussion with women	Cairo, Giza, Sharm El-Sheikh and Aswan	January 2009- June 2010	European Training Foundation
Skills Assesment Survey and Analysis in the construction, tourism and Agricultrre Sectors in Egypt	Literature Review, Quantitative Questionnaire and Focus Groups Discussion	Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis	To support the Migration project team of ETF in implemeting a field study in egypt in relation to three economic sectors: construction, hotels and agriculture	300 Structured interviews 6 focus Groups Discussion	Cairo, Giza, Sharm El-Sheikh, Gharbia, Sharkia and Dakahlia	January- December 2009	European Training Foundation
Study on sustainability issues in fresh fruit and vegetables (FFV) production in Egypt	Literature Review, In-depth interviews, and Focus Groups Discussion	Qualitative Analysis	To identify improvement potentials in Egyptian export oriented fresh fruit and vegetable (FFV) production, in particular for workers and small farmers.	Desk Research, In-depth Interviews (24 workers and 6 stakeholders), 6 focus group discussion with workers and 2 focus group discussion with female workers	Beheira and Gharbia	April- August 2009	SOMO- Centre for Research on Multinational Corporations, Netherlands
Impact Assesmnt of the Agreements Funded by the Arab Fund for Development to the Social Development Fund Egypt	Literature Review, Quantitative Questionnaire and Focus Groups Discussion	Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis	The Objective of the assignemnt is to evaluate The development impact of the Social Fund for Development in Egypt on beneficiaries' level and specifically for the activities funded by the Arab Fund.	400 Structured Questionnaire, In-depth Interviews with the local offices of the Social Fund, 6 focus group discussion with workers and 2 focus group discussion with female workers	2 Governorates in Upper Egypt (Minia and Assiut) and another two in lower Egypt (Bheira and Sharkia)	March- October 2009	Social Fund for Development- Egypt

Project Title	Research Methodology	Methodology - Data Analysis	Objective	Sample Size	Location	Date	Client
WB/Upper Egypt Growth Shared-Village Case study	Desk review, Literature Review Qualitative survey (mapping - focus group discussions - in-depth interviews)	Qualitative Analysis	To identify and draw lessons of success and failure regarding development interventions/programmes on income levels, human development across beneficiaries and non-beneficiaries and growth shared in Upper Egypt villages (describe constraints, removal interventions and their dynamics).	26 focus group discussion 30 in-depth interviews	Sohag Governorate	July, 08 – Nov. 08	The World Bank group
GTZ/Agriculture Water Management project Impact Assessment	Semi-Structured questionnaire	Qualitative Quantitative	To Assess the impact of the project activities on the farmers in Behira and kafr Al Shiekh Governorates	200 questionnaires (100 per each governorate)	Behira, Kafr Al Shiekh	Dec. 07 - April 08	GTZ
SFD/SEDO Monitoring and Evaluation	Desk review, in depth interviews	Qualitative analysis	Assess the current monitoring and evaluation system of the organization and prepare a monitoring manual based on current processes and provide recommendations	50 interviews	Cairo, Benha, Giza	April 2007 - January 2008	SFD
UNDP/Slum Upgrading/Abu Hilal - Minia	Literature Review, Structured questionnaire Semi-structured Interviews In-depth interviews Focus Group Discussions Workshops	Qualitative Quantitative	To assess the current conditions and propose the appropriate upgrading alternatives for Abu Hilal Slum Area	400 questionnaire responses, 50 semi-structured interviews, 10 in-depth interviews, 10 focus groups, 4 workshops	Minya Governorate	July-07	UNDP UNICEF UNFPA UNIFEM UNHABITAT ILO
Development of a gender checklist for environmental project	Desk review, in depth interviews	Qualitative Quantitative	Address how gender issues are being mainstreamed in the “Environmental Management in Governorates” (EMG), a component of Danida supported “Environmental Sector Programme” (ESP).	15 in depth interviews	Beni Sueif, Aswan	Jan. 07 - March. 07	DANIDA
Poverty alleviation in Alexandria Governorate	Desk review, in depth interviews	Qualitative, quantitative analysis of secondary data, SWOT analysis	Provide an overview of poverty alleviation initiatives carried out in the Governorate of Alexandria and identification of initiatives matching with the client's area of intervention.	9 in-depth interviews	Alexandria	Apr-07	Arab Urban Development Institute (AUDI), Saudi Arabia
Analysis of business women in Egypt	Desk review, in depth interviews	Qualitative analysis	Identify in which sectors Egyptian business women are more actively involved and identification of areas in which GTZ could provide support to women entrepreneurs	35 interviews	Cairo, Beni Suef, Aswan, Alexandria, Gharbia	February - June 2007	GTZ
Egyptian Olive Oil sub sector analysis	In depth interviews, Focus group discussions	Qualitative	General overview of olive oil production in Egypt with a glance at the supply and demand in local and international markets	20 in-depth interviews, 15 focus group discussions		January - March 2007	GTZ
Study on Egyptian Women Owners of Small and Medium Enterprises	Desk review, in depth interviews	Qualitative analysis of primary and secondary data Quantitative analysis of secondary data	Within the framework of GTZ Egypt's SME Promotion Programme, the study was to identify in which of the three sectors of focus - agricultural products, cotton products and environmental services Egyptian business women are more actively involved. The study was to identify the areas in which GTZ could provide support to women entrepreneurs.	35 interviews	Cairo, Beni Suef, Aswan, Alexandria, Gharbia	February - June 2007	GTZ
Policy towards dynamic rural areas in Egypt	Focus Group Discussions, Semi-Structured Interviews	Qualitative analysis, case studies	Identify a vision of Egypt's rural population of the old lands and stress upon the importance of achieving development in the old lands of Egypt while maintaining sociocultural values, biodiversity and the characteristics of the old land	5 Focus Group Discussion and 15 semi structured interviews	Cairo	April - June 2007	Embassy of the Netherlands
Study on policy for the monitoring of pesticide residues (MPR) in Egypt/ Ministry of Agriculture	Desks Review, In depth interviews	-Qualitative Analysis, SWOT analysis, In depth interviews	The study was carried out in three step which consisted in survey of the present situation, survey of existing EU MPR systems and requirements, proposal of a MPR system	17 in depth interviews	Cairo	June 07 – Sept. 07	Ministry of Agriculture
Integrated Environmental and Social Impact Assessment for the Governorate of Alexandria	Participatory Rapid Appraisal research, In-depth interviews	Qualitative analysis	The Alexandria Growth Pole Project (AGPP) was to support the economic development of Alexandria Governorate through removing key infrastructural constraints, reducing barriers to investment and ensuring the socio-economic integration of the poor. Specifically, the objective of the study was to conduct an integrated assessment of the environmental and social impacts that the projects would have on the local population and on the Governorate as a whole in order to recommend the options that have the least adverse consequences and to produce a mitigation plan to reduce inevitable potentially negative impacts.	40 focus group discussions, 15 in-depth interviews	Alexandria	September 2006-February 2007	World Bank
Final Evaluation of AIDS Project	In depth interviews, Focus group discussions	Qualitative Analysis	To evaluate the overall project based on the logical framework, related indicators and activities carried out	15 interviews - 7 focus group discussions	Cairo, Aswan	November 2006 - January 2007	CARE
Assessment of monitoring mechanisms for two of IFAD's implemented projects in Egypt	Desk review, in depth interviews	Qualitative Analysis	Assess the monitoring mechanism used in in two IFAD projects implemented in West Nubaria and Sohag	8 Interviews	West Nubaria (Alexandria), Sohag	May - June 2007	IFAD
Integrated Environmental and Social Impact Assessment for the Governorate of Alexandria	Participatory Rapid Appraisal In depth interview	Qualitative Analysis, SWOT analysis	The objective of the Alexandria Growth Pole Project (AGPP) is to support the economic development of Alexandria Governorate through removing key infrastructural constraints, reducing barriers to investment and ensuring the socio-economic integration of the poor. Specifically, the objectives of the AGPP are to work with the Alexandria Governorate within the framework of the City Development Strategy (CDS)	40 focus group discussions, 15 in-depth interviews	Alexandria	September 2006-February 2007	World Bank
LIFE II Project Baseline Study	Quantitative baseline survey and Qualitative Research	Quantitative Analysis (SPSS) Qualitative Analysis	Carry out a survey in all the country on the effectiveness of the water users associations and the users. It is the same objective as LIFE I with output of comparing the two years of survey.	5000 structured interviews, 25 focus group discussions	All Egypt	March - August 2006	USAID
Assessing West Delta market institutions and market prospects for agricultural and food products	Desk review, in depth interviews	Qualitative	Assess the demand for West Delta (WD) grown agricultural products and to design a market driven technical assistance program for the farmers located in the area of the West Delta Irrigation Improvement Project financed by the World Bank	15 interviews	West Delta	September - October 2006	World Bank

Project Title	Research Methodology	Methodology - Data Analysis	Objective	Sample Size	Location	Date	Client
NPK Fertilizer Survey	Literature Review Quantitative Survey Qualitative Survey (semi-structured survey)	Quantitative Analysis (SPSS) Qualitative Analysis	To assess the possibility of entering the NPK fertilizer market in Egypt by conducting market research on supply and demand sides.	99 suppliers/importers, 140 farmers	Cairo, Cairo-Alex desert road, Cairo-Ismailia and Upper Egypt	February-April 2006	SABQUE
Ex-post evaluation study on Water Supply Technology Training Improvement Project	Literature Review Qualitative Survey (semi-structured survey, In-depth interviews)	Qualitative Analysis, SWOT analysis	To assess the effectiveness and efficiency of the project in strengthening the capacity of the General Water Authority in operating and maintaining Cairo water supply services on a long term basis.	50 ex-trainees 150 customers	Cairo	February 1 - March 15 2006	Japanese International Cooperation Agency, JICA
LIFE I Project	Quantitative survey, Participatory Rapid Appraisal, Focus Group Discussions	Quantitative Analysis (SPSS) Qualitative Analysis	Carry out a survey in all the country on the effectiveness of the water users associations and the users.	5000 structured interviews, 25 focus group discussions	All Egypt	March - August 2005	USAID
BDAC	Qualitative survey	Qualitative Analysis	To assess the demand of micro credit of business owners in the informal sector in Sohag Governorate in order to develop appropriate lending products.	Around 400 in the informal sector	Sohag Governorate	10 September - 10 November 2005	Principal Bank for Development of Agricultural Credit PBDAC / World Bank
Field Survey on Farmers in Twenty-Seven Integrated Water Management Districts	Quantitative survey	Quantitative Analysis (SPSS)	To monitor the impact of the Integrated Water Resource Management (IWRM) Component of the Livelihood and Income from the Environment Project, which has been carried out by International Resource Group to support the decentralization of water management.	4980 Farmers	West Sharkiya, Gharbia, Qena and Aswan	25 June - August 2005	LIFE Integrated Water Resource Management, / USAID
Rural Development Strategy for Upper Egypt	Literature Review Quantitative Survey	Quantitative Analysis, SWOT Analysis	To support the Governorate, Executive officials, and stakeholders (local popular council, associations, traditional natural leaders and private sector) in defining interventions to promote broad-based rural economic growth in Upper Egypt.	500 questionnaires in both Fayoum and Sohag,	Sohag Fayoum	June-Nov. 2005	World Bank
Construction Sector Skills Demand Research	Literature Review Qualitative Survey (semi-structured survey, FGDs, In-depth interviews)	Qualitative Analysis	To assist the Building and Construction Project in designing market responsive training programme/ fine-tuning the project interventions by providing an insight on the needs of construction sector.	60 semi-structured interviews 30 focus groups 20 in-depth interviews	Cairo	April - June 2005	GTZ NTVET-Programme/Mubarak-Kohl Initiative Building and Construction Project
A Study on Gender and Cultural/Social Diversity in Egypt	Literature Review Quantitative Survey Qualitative Survey (semi-structured survey)	Quantitative Analysis (SPSS) Qualitative Analysis	To identify and illustrate gender roles and activities within the Egyptian culture and society by gender, region, age and social and economic status.  To identify the views and opinions of individuals concerning the differences between the genders.	400 structured interviews 16 focus groups 5 in-depth interviews	Cairo Gharbeya Qena North Sinai	September 2004 - January 2005	Japanese International Cooperation Agency, JICA
SFD Multi Donor Review	Literature Review Quantitative Research (structured interviews) Qualitative Research (FGDs, Semi structured interviews)	Quantitative Analysis (SPSS) Qualitative Analysis	To measure employment creation, asset accumulation and sustainability of operation among groups of clients of the SEDO credit schemes in Dakahlia and Minia governorates	615 Structured interviews 4 FGDs 21 in-depth interviews	Minia Dakahlia	July - Sept. 2005	European Commission
IFAD Independent External Evaluation	Quantitative Research (structured interviews) Qualitative Research (FGDs, Semi structured interviews)	Literature Review Quantitative Research (structured interviews) Qualitative Research (FGDs, Semi structured interviews)	To determine IFAD's contribution to rural poverty reduction, the results and impact it has achieved in this area, and relevance of the organization's mission and objectives in relation to international development goals and the national development strategy.	300 structured interviews 4 FGDs 50 in-depth interviews	Cairo Behara Port Said Dakahlia	May 2004- July 2004	ITAD Ltd (Information, Training and Development)
FAO women and biodiversity	Literature Review Qualitative Research (Semi structured interviews)	Qualitative Analysis	To collect and analyze the current production and marketing phases of medicinal and aromatic plants in order to assess the involvement of women in this process.  Based on the collected information, gender-sensitive methodologies will be developed.	30 semi-structured interviews	Egypt, Sudan, Morocco	April 2004- July 2004	FAO , MENA Office
MENA Child Protection Initiative	Literature Review Qualitative interviews	Qualitative Analysis	To outline the status of vulnerable and disadvantaged children in Alexandria,  To provide an overview of existing programs and service providers;  To assess their capacity-building needs and provide the client with specified recommendations.	20 in-depth interviews	Cairo Alexandria	May - June 2004	Arab Urban Development Institute (AUDI), Saudi Arabia

Project Title	Research Methodology	Methodology - Data Analysis	Objective	Sample Size	Location	Date	Client
Promotion Assessment of Agricultural Sector Development Program	Literature Review  Quantitative Research (structured interviews)  Qualitative Research (FGDs, Semi structured interviews)	Quantitative Analysis (SPSS)  Qualitative Analysis	To identify the reasons for scarce use of the funds available.  To assess current ASDP promotional activities and impact.  To assist ASDP in designing a promotional campaign to increase the use of credit facilities, including appropriate instruments.	600 structured interviews  33 FGDs  154 in-depth interviews	Cairo Behara Minia Assuit	March 2004- April 2004	Agricultural Sector Development Program / EU
Evaluation of the TCTP Rice Processing	Literature Review  Qualitative Research (Semi structured interviews)	Quantitative analysis (questionnaires)- Qualitative analysis (In-depth interviews)	To assess current ASDP promotional activities and impact.	73 semi-structured interviews	Alexandria, Kafr el-Sheikh, Cairo in Egypt- 17 African countries	December 2003- March 2004	Japanese International Cooperation Agency, JICA
Proposal for the optimization of the Kom Oshim Farm and the Olive Oil Mill	(FGDs, Semi structured interviews)	Qualitative analysis	To assist ASDP in designing a promotional campaign to increase the use of credit facilities, including appropriate instruments to improve accessibility to funds, and a description of the role of intermediaries for the three pilot governorates.	100 semi-structured interviews, focus groups with 70 participants	Kom Oshim farm and Fayoum Governorate, Egypt	December 2003- March 2004	Spanish Agency of International Cooperation, AECI
Study on Situation Analysis of Community Development Associations	(FGDs, Semi structured interviews)	Qualitative analysis	To assist ASDP in designing a promotional campaign to increase the use of credit facilities, including appropriate instruments to improve accessibility to funds, and a description of the role of intermediaries for the three pilot governorates.	4 in-depth interviews with 4 CDAs, 320 individual interviews, focus groups with 40 CDA Members (poor and rich) 80 non CDA members	Beni Suef Governorate, Egypt	December 2003 – March 2004	JICA
SEDO Job Assessment	Literature review, Structured Questionnaire, In depth interviews	Qualitative and quantitative analysis	To assist the Small Enterprise Development Association, a subsidiary of the Social Fund for Development, to develop clear employment definitions with regards to various categories of work.	881 Structured questionnaires. In depth interviews: in Giza & Dakahliya	Giza, Dakhaleia, Minia	Sept 2003' March 2004	JICA
Socio Economic Assessment for Red Sea Sustainable Tourism Development Initiative	Participatory Rapid Appraisal In depth interview, literature review, case-studies	Qualitative and quantitative analysis	to support the RSSTI planning exercise with a socio-economic profile of the indigenous population, an assessment of their interest in participating in project activities and identified human and cultural assets.	100 interviews, 20 in depth interviews	Marsa Allam, Red Sea governorate, Egypt	Apr -May 2003	RSSTI Project, PA Inc., USAID
Assessment Impact Netherlands support to Water Management on Poverty Reduction in Egypt	Participatory Rapid Appraisal In depth interview, literature review, case-studies	Qualitative and quantitative analysis	To assess the impact of over 55 water management related projects, supported over 26 years on poverty reduction in Egypt	100 individual interviews, 15 group interviews	Fayoum Qena, Sinai, Sharkiya governorates, Egypt	January 2003 - March 2003	APP project, The Royal Netherlands Embassy
Study on Investment Opportunities for SMEs in the Canal Zone	SME Survey, Market research, Training	SPSS/quantitative, qualitative assessment PRA, SWOT	To identify investment opportunities for SMEs, transfer of knowledge to relevant SEDO staff.	850 interviews for SMEs, 30 interviews for demand survey	Canal Zone, Egypt	Sept.02- March 03	Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)
Assessment of marketing opportunities for traditional Bedouin handicraft and agro-processed products in the Matrouh area	Participatory Rapid Appraisal, in depth interviews, literature review	Qualitative Analysis, SWOT analysis	To support the Matrouh Resource Management Project to assess existing craft and agro-processed production, identify marketing opportunities and recommend institutional and technical assistance support structure to upgrade local productions.	100 interviews in 5 districts, 10 in depth interviews, 1 case study	Matrouh, Egypt	March - June 02	World Bank/Matrouh Resource Management Project
Monography on Olive Oil and Livestock Cooperatives in Egypt	Participatory Rapid Appraisal In depth interview	Qualitative analysis	To assess the capacity of agriculture cooperatives to provide processing and marketing services to farmers.	five focus groups in each governorate	Egypt ( Assiut - Marsa Matrouh - Fayoum )	April 2002- August 2002	TRAGSATEC, Spanish Cooperation
Agricultural Drainage: Towards an Interdisciplinary and Integrated Approach	Participatory Rapid Appraisal, in depth interviews, literature review	Qualitative analysis	To analyse and document Egypt best practices in the field of drainage and sub drainage focusing on institutional and farmers participation issues	10 focus groups, 10 in depth individual interviews	Cairo, Fayoum, Noubariya Egypt	July - September 2002	ARCADIS/World Bank
National Water Resources Plan Project	In depth interviews, Focus group discussions	Qualitative analysis	To assess the Ministry of Water Resources and Irrigation with the development of a National Water Resources Plan that will outline how Egypt will safeguard its water resources in the future.	17 interviews	Cairo, Minia, Kafr El Sheikh, Alexandria	July - September 2002	MWRP
Implementation of the Activities of the "Support to Farmers Organisations in Africa Programme – North Africa" (SFOAP) in Egypt							